APPLICATION FOR SOLICITATION LICENSE

Gettysburg Borough Ordinance Chapter 13, Part 5 requires that all persons engaged in soliciting donations or gifts, either of money, merchandise, or any other thing of value, within the Borough of Gettysburg, obtain a license from the Department of Planning, Zoning, and Historic Preservation as delegated by the Mayor. This provision shall not require the procurement of a license by any person who is engaged in the activities of religious proselytizing, political speech, and the distribution of political handbills. A copy of the Solicitation License Ordinance can be reviewed at the Borough office or online at the Borough's website at www.gettysburgpa.gov.

Please accurately and completely provide the requested information on the following application to assist Planning Department personnel as to whether or not a Solicitation License should be issued. The information on this application will be used by the Planning Department to determine the appropriateness of a license.
